TOP that! Stop that, I say, or O Fil shake you myset!" Craries Dawson stopped it at the partile face of a very pretty, very young girl who was standing at the young girl who was signs, 'Don't water's edge.

"Can't you see those signs, 'Don't trespass," all around the lake?"
"Oh, you call this a lake, do you?"
"Yes, It's my lake. Don't get flip-

"In not I assure you that I had no idea of making trouble and I most in "by spologize"

"But why are you trespassing?" she asked, still unappeased but inwardly melted by the earnest, tanned face looking down at het.

"Well, to tell the truth." He hestituted "To tell the truth.

Well, to tell the truth—" He hes-itated: "To tell the truth, my one mania is fishing, and I believe I'd al-most risk my life if I thought the chances were fair for a good catch, and there were so many signs not to trespass around this—er—lake that I was convinced the fishing was good The more stringent the warnings the the fishing-always."
Did you catch any?" asked the t that instant she Ward a vigorflowping in the grass at her feet stand at saw one of her most that trout gasping its last. With ek she grabbed it and threw it into the water.

To only put those fishes in there early and they have to multiply re we start fishing them out."

General: It's getting worse and early the man said desperately. are you my intentions were not as my actions. Is there any-ican do to prove my contrimore was so serious that the girl moted to laugh for the first uring the interview.

" she said after a moment's " she said after a moment's " but it's awfully blg pay for le trout."

a the price.' he answered un"and if it's within human o do it. I'll do it." k you're awfully nice," she relevantly.

nk you," he smiled "1 think

e tell you all about it. We'll here," she interrupted, mov-to a fallen tree nearby. Pm Miss Marjorie Randall." Lawyer Randall's daughter Da you know dad?"

Da you know da you begin with, poor mother's ing.

A dull red braid, nine inches wide, makes the girdle, and slipped through a sloands almost kill her, ought this place, and mother we to live here a whole year we but the servants. It's ill for me, but dad comes our plaint, front and back, and a horse-collar of satin complete the costume. to the but the servants. It's dull for me, but dad comes out mis art, he's trying to help fix mp so it'll be more interesting. and now I'm crazy to have a the cance, so I can go out on I asked for it before mother. ane went into hysterics, said I'd drowned and made dad promise to get me one. But I just know

d me how te paddle it, I'd dri passed out of breath and her face pink with excite-ind her blue eyes dancing. said the man in a flash, word now to worry your bu. I'll guarantee you'll be I'm sure your father would ed if he knew I was looking else made it for m wonderful!" sald Marjodie Will you really do ndition.

you promise not to go out in mili I give you permission." omise," she said almost solar she place, her hand in his. and it a second, then:

here," she answered as she way through the bushes, her mg in the sun and her red dding a touch of color to minute," he called after n don't know who I am yet." 1 50," she answered, flashing mile: "Who are you?"

"harley," he said at last.
"gir, Bood-by, Mr. Charley, at 2 o'clock. -by Miss Marjorle, Friday at ing Marjorie's mothe rily to understand the cause and excitement, but no expla-could she get out of her: ust dreadfully happy, mother" a test dreamily nappy, moder her only reply, and I was alraid you'd be so lone; here after the life you've been tomed to," her mother answered, but after ages of waiting, Friame and the two appeared puncar the lake. On the surface water lay a beautiful little caer lay a beautiful little cadently just cut out of a trunk a huge tree. A seat was in each dand on the side a place had been noothed and in large green letters are painted the word, "The Marwere painted the word,

"I just can't believe," she said, her voice thrilling with happiness, and at the sight of her joy the man felt fully royald for his blistered hands.
"All aboard!" he said trying to hide the pleasure in his face.

It was a wonderful afternoon they spent together, he paddling and she watching him while her finger trailed through the cool water.

"I feel as if I'd been to heaven."

ahe said when at last they had to get

"I do too," he replied.
"Can we do it again tomorrow?"
she asked timidly.
"Indeed we can, and the day after, and the day after that."
It soon became a habit for the two to meet every day at the lake, and being thrown together as they were, it was natural that they should confide in each other, and at the end of a short while they knew each other better than they would have after months of ordinary acquaintance. Once in awhile he came to the house, Once in awhile he came to the house, but not often, for everything had to be kept very quiet around Mrs. Randall.

As the summer waned he began to dread going back to town. The days seemed to slip through his fingers like precious stones, and once he went to town for the day and unknown to the ziri, had an interview with her father. When they met the next day his face was glowing.

"Marjorie," he said genity, "I must net back to work tomorrow, so this will be our last trip. Do you want to try it alone or shall we agree always to paddle it together."

He looked at her earnestly, but her

Chic Note of Sports Suit

1 egg. 1 tablespoon water. Cracker or dried bread crumbs, Salt and pepper.

Cook yeal in boiling water to cover till tender. Season with salt and peoper. Dip in crumbs, egg (slightly beaten with water) and crumbs. Fry in hot fat. Deep fat or a frying par

BY CORA MOORE.

New York's Fashion Authority.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Long and far afield would you look for a suit of the dash and chic of this sports model of Wykay twill which Jeanette MacDonald wears in that sprightly musical comedy "The Night Boat" at the Liberty Thesels.

ves fell beneath his gaze and he felt

MERINGUE PUDDING WITH ALMOND CUSTARD. 3 eggs (whites).

VEAL OYSTERS. Lean Veal cut in pieces the size of an oyster.

3-4 cup powdered sugar. 2 tablespoons lemon juice Best whites of eggs till stiff and dry. Beat in sugar slowly. Add lemon juice drop by drop. Put in mold with hole in the center, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven Add lemo for 20 minutes. Turn onto a dish and fill center with boiled custard and chopped blanched almonds.

Anyhow, the price of tacks can't stop our building air castles.

Is Largest Tunnel.

The longest rallway tunnel on the American continent is the Rogers pass tunnel on the Rocky mountain division of the Canadian Pacific line, which is ive miles in length and runs under Mount McDonald, in the Selkirk range. It was constructed at a cost her hands tremble in his.

"Did ever a chap have such luck!" of mere than $10,000,000.

collar of satin complete the costume

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

(By Olive Roberts Barton)

A Journey Through the Sky

"Yes, we shall have to hunt up Mr. Sun," said the Fairy Queen, "but I can't imagine what he is doing away, so long." He's the only one Jack Frost is afraid of, and who can scare him away. But I don't know how

"Couldn't we go?" asked Nick timidly. "We have our Green Shoes, you know."

"Why, of course!" smiled the Fairy Queen much pleased. "But it's a long distance to the sun. The best way would be for the South Wind to show you the Morning Star. He can take your message and telephone you the way to Mr. Sun." across the sky to Mr. Sun.

As you know, things happen tast in fairyland, and scarcely had the NICK and Nancy were soon sairing up through the deep blue sky.

Fairy Queen spoken before South Wind took the children by the hand, and with their little Green Shoes on their feet, Nick and Nancy were soon saling up through the deep blue sky to Mr. Morning Star's house, and in a few minutes were knocking on his front door.

"Sure,I'll do it," agreed Mr. Star when he heard the trouble. "I'll tell Mr. Sun to roll out of bed and get busy. He gets so comfortable under all his fleecy cloud-blankets, he hates to get up in the mornings. Go back and tell the Fairy Queen not to worry—that I'll ring Mr. Sun's telephone bell and waken him every day after this."

The twins thanked Mr. Morning Star and returned safely to the palaco in a shorter time than it takes to tell it.

Sure enough Mr. Sun threw back one cloud blanket after another and then rolled right out of bed in plain view of everybody. He was in high good humor!

good humor!
"Hello, people!" he called down merrily. "Here I am. Now where's that fellow Jack Frost?"

Women may be ensured instinctive beauty, material loveliness, she adored by as some sharp critic arers, but when it comes to spoiled romance and blighted happiness, they develop a deep sisterly sympathy. One never can tell, L suppose, when one's own romance may ferment and blow up like over-ripe wine. Mrs. Best's story fixed her place in the hearts of the Lorimer women. She had done for head daughter, what the girl never could have done for herself. She had made us patient with the girl and eager to assimilate her, whereas Chrys and I had undertaken that difficult task with considerable reluctance.

Memory instinctive beauty, material loveliness, she adored but she lacked all sense of moral beauty. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right moral, she was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right or wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtuse to the right wrong of things. She was unterly obtu considerable reluctance.

of color!"

Already I could see that the girl resembled her father in another very important way. She was extremely fond of the opposite sex. Only III.

Counted with Ann. Bad form, of course, to make oneseir the con a group of all the men in the room!

Ann was doing that as I watched and was doing that as I watched.

"She looks like a movie heroine demonstrating popularity," thought L

"And this divorce question is going to rend the respectable tribe of Lorimer, come de-" Luncheon Veal oysters, health bread, marmalade, tea.
Dinner-Cream of asparagus soup, meat ple, French fried potatoes, spinach saizd, meringue pudding with almond custard, plain cup cakes, coffee.

My Own Recipes.
A nice way to mold a cereal for frying is to pour it into well buttered or colled baking powder cans. While bak-rend the respectable tribe of hormals, some day."

I watched Jim, Jr., but of course he was merely pleased to see that his little girl was making such a grand hit with the men of the family.

Fascinating little beauty she undoubtedly was, physically. At the moment, she was going into a fine estacy over a bouquet of blue for glove, expensive stuff raised out of season, and olled baking powder cans. While baking powder cans have a sharp edge and care must be used in washing them, they are better than coffee cans, for coffee cans have a little roll edge that prevents turning the molded cereal out sive stuff raised out of seas bought by daddy just to give the new bride a moment's joy.

Doubtless Ann had inherited her father's artistic tendencies. Physical

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and prompt ly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, Q.

Mrs. Best had accounted for Ann stone and the see why her mother that intending to do so.

"So like her father!" the mother had see wasn't even complacent because "So fond of beauty of form and her daughter had caught one of the

MAKES CAŁOMEL

Calomel, the Most Valuable of Drugs, Now Purified From Its Nausea and Danger-"Calotabs" the New Name-

The medicinal virtues of calomel are in no way connected with its nauseating and dangerous qualities, as is prov-en by the fact that the new calomel en by the fact that the new catomic tablet, called Calotabs, is free from objectionable effects yet retains all of the liver-cleansing and system-purifying qualities of the old-style calomel. For biliousness, headaches, constipation and indigestion, and wherever calculate secontial the new de-naussated. sential, the new de-naus-33 calomel tablet is a practically perfect larative

To inspire public confidence in this new discovery the manufacturers have new discovery the manufacturers have authorized druggists everywhere to re-fund the price if the customer is not "perfectly delighted" with Calotabs Sold only in original packages, sealed, Price thirty-five cents. One tablet at bedtime, with a swallow of water. No taste, no nausea, no griping, no salta. You wake up in the morning with a clean liver, feeling fine, and a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you -no danger.-Adv.

I was haunted by some of est's veriections, made in the est of her matrimonfal history.

"One is bound to be marry if one marries,—and if one does not." If the man slumps, one is sorry if one gots a divorce,—or if one does not!"

"That's a hopeiess philosophy," thought I. "I suppose it's common among over-sophisticated, over-experiences, over-sorry people. Now I wonder what keeps Mrs. Best going?" men of our fi

Something, surely, kept her going. She absolutely refused to give up ner work in the movies. I guess few women would have had the courage to pass up a life of ease as the mother-in-law that stands wear and tear

Lowe's

the scuff of grown-ups and the rough and tumble of | Ranier to keep cleanchildren will not injure it. It dries hard and stays hard-that's why it is called Lowe's Hard Drying cially for floors. Easy to | scriptive literature,

Dragging furniture, use paint the floor to and walk on it tomorro paint and want you in and look at the c This paint is made espe- panels; ask, also, for

A. M. KNIGHT Phone 851-J 307 Cleveland Ave.

French Voile Frocks Exquisitely Fashioned

C O soft and sheer and rich in quality that they resemble georgette silk although made of cotton, we predict unusual popularity for these Summer frocks. They come in a plentiful range of styles in which youthfulness is the dominant feature. Navy, tan, brown and black in distinctive flowered effects are the colors represented. But above all else, we point to their soft, rich qualitysuch quality as you naturally expect to find at Osgood's and in this instance the prices are especially moderate.

Organdie Frocks In Lovely Pastel Shades

F OR Summer comfort and for that additional satisfaction which comes from knowing you are stylishly dressed, you will require one or more frocks of organdie. These new frocks we offer are quite the most attractive we have been able to find. They come in rich pastel shades-in peach, apricot, rose, jade green, Nile green, light blue and canary as well as white They are delightfully designed and made to withstand plenty of service and numerous tubbings. Plentiful values offened at each Osgood's price.

"OSGOOD'S-The Best Place to Shop, After All" STORE WILL BE CLOSED FRIDAY AT NOON.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS-(IT DIDN'T TAKE TOM LONG TO DECIDE WHO WAS GUILTY.)-BY ALLMAN.

